Low Carb | Keto | Gluten Free

Ingredients (makes ~12–14 cookies):

Cream cheese	113 g (½ cup, softened)
Unsalted butter	113 g (½ cup, softened)
Almond flour	230 g (a little less than 2 cups)
(Optional) Coconut flour	Replace 2 Tbsp almond flour with 2 Tbsp coconut flour for extra crunch
Monk fruit sweetener (granular)	60–70 g (adjust to taste)
Salt	¼ tsp
Vanilla extract	1 tsp
Ground flaxseed	1 Tbsp + 2 Tbsp water (mix and rest 5 min → egg replacer)
Chopped roasted pecans	60 g (½ cup)
Pecan chunks (for topping)	40 g (■ cup)

Instructions:

1. Preheat oven to 160 °C / 320 °F. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper.
2. Prepare flax egg: Mix 1 Tbsp flaxseed meal + 2 Tbsp water. Let rest 5 minutes until gelled.
3. In a mixing bowl, beat butter, cream cheese, and sweetener together until fluffy. Add vanilla and flax egg; mix well.
4. Add almond flour, salt, and mix to form a stiff dough. Fold in chopped pecans.
5. Roll dough into small balls (about 1½ Tbsp each) and flatten slightly (½ inch thick). Press a pecan chunk on top of each.
6. Bake 25–30 minutes at 160 °C / 320 °F until golden brown at edges. Turn off oven and leave cookies inside for 15–20 minutes with the door slightly open for extra crispness.
7. Cool completely on a rack — cookies will firm up further as they cool.

Storage:

Store in an airtight jar at room temperature for up to 2 weeks. Reheat at 120 °C / 250 °F for 5–8 minutes for extra crunch.

Tips for Crunchier Texture:

- Use granular (not powdered) sweetener.
- Add 1–2 tsp coconut flour for a drier, crispier texture.
- Do not underbake — cookies should feel firm in the center when done.

Optional Variations:

■ Chocolate Chip: Add 2 Tbsp sugar-free dark chocolate chips instead of some pecans.

- Spiced: Add ½ tsp cinnamon or a pinch of nutmeg for warmth.
- Coconut-Pecan: Replace ¼ cup almond flour with unsweetened desiccated coconut.
- Lemon-Almond: Add 1 tsp lemon zest and a drop of almond extract for a refreshing twist.
- Mocha: Mix 1 tsp instant coffee and 1 tsp cocoa powder into the dough for a rich coffee flavor.
