

Low-Carb South Indian Savory Nut, Seed & Coconut Mixture

A crunchy, aromatic South Indian–style mixture made with nuts, seeds, and coconut chips — low in carbs, high in healthy fats, and perfect for snacking.

Ingredients

- Nuts & Seeds (Base Mix):
- ½ cup raw peanuts (or macadamias for ultra low-carb)
- ½ cup almonds (or mix of almonds & pecans)
- ½ cup cashews (optional — use ¼ cup for fewer carbs)
- ■ cup pumpkin seeds
- 2 tbsp flaxseeds
- 2 tbsp hemp hearts (optional)
- ■ cup dry coconut chips (unsweetened)
- 1 tbsp white or black sesame seeds
- Seasoning:
- 1½ tbsp coconut oil (or ghee)
- ½ tsp mustard seeds
- ½ tsp cumin seeds
- 1 sprig curry leaves (10–12 leaves)
- 2 dried red chilies, broken
- ¼ tsp hing (asafoetida)
- ¼ tsp turmeric powder
- ½–¾ tsp red chili powder (to taste)
- ½ tsp salt (or to taste)
- ¼ tsp jaggery (optional; use erythritol or skip for keto)
- 1 tbsp water mixed with ½ tsp coconut flour (helps spices stick)

Method

1. Dry roast base: Heat pan on medium-low. Roast peanuts, almonds, cashews (if using) until golden. Add pumpkin, flax, and sesame seeds; roast gently. Toast coconut chips until golden. Set aside.

- 2 2. Prepare seasoning: In the same pan, heat oil or ghee. Add mustard and cumin seeds. Once they splutter, add curry leaves and red chilies. Lower heat and add hing, turmeric, and chili powder. Stir briefly.
- 3 3. Help spices stick: Add the water–coconut flour mixture. It will bubble slightly and form a light paste for coating.
- 4 4. Combine: Add all roasted nuts, seeds, and coconut chips. Toss well to coat evenly with spices. Adjust salt or chili. Add jaggery/erythritol if using.
- 5 5. Cool & store: Spread the mixture to cool fully and store airtight for up to 3 weeks.

Tips & Variations

- Add crumbled curry leaves after cooling for extra aroma.
- Substitute pecans or macadamias for a richer, even lower-carb mix.
- Add amchur (dry mango powder) or lime zest after cooling for tang.
- Bake instead of roasting — 160°C / 325°F for 8–10 minutes.
- Mix in homemade cheese crisps only after mixture cools fully to keep them crunchy.
- Cheddar crisps pair beautifully with curry leaf spice; Parmesan adds savory depth.
