

Eggless Low-Carb Savory Crispy Cookies

Flaxmeal & Almond Flour • Indian Snack–Style Variations • One-Bake Crisp

Base Ingredients

- Almond flour – 1 cup
- Flaxmeal (golden preferred) – ¼ cup
- Unsalted butter or ghee, melted – 3 tbsp
- Water – 3 to 4 tbsp (as needed)
- Salt – ¾ tsp
- Black pepper – ½ tsp
- Cumin seeds (jeera) – 1 tsp
- Optional seeds (sesame / pumpkin / sunflower) – ¼ to ½ cup
- Optional umami: Nutritional yeast 1 tbsp OR Parmesan 2 tbsp

Method

- Preheat oven to 325°F (165°C). Line baking tray with parchment.
- Mix almond flour, flaxmeal, salt, spices, and seeds.
- Add melted butter/ghee; mix. Add water gradually to form firm dough.
- Rest dough 5 minutes for flax to hydrate.
- Roll dough thin (⅛ inch) between parchment sheets.
- Cut into desired shapes or score for breaking later.
- Bake 18–22 minutes, flipping once halfway, until golden and dry.
- Cool completely to achieve full crispness.

Indian Snack Variations (Structure Unchanged)

- Jeera–Pepper: add extra ½ tsp crushed black pepper.
- Nipattu-Style: add 1 tbsp sesame seeds + pinch hing + chilli flakes.
- Curry Leaf: add 1 tsp finely crushed dried curry leaves.
- Masala Crackers: add ½ tsp coriander powder + ¼ tsp garam masala.
- Cheese Chilli: add Parmesan + Kashmiri chilli powder.

Notes

- Target texture is thin, dry, and crisp with clean snap.
- Roll thinner for cracker-style crunch; thicker for cookie-style bite.
- Do not skip resting step – flax needs hydration.
- Approx. net carbs: ~1.2–1.6 g per piece (depending on size).